Concerning Certain Civil)
Justice Reform Task Force) Recommendations)

The Iowa Civil Justice Reform Task Force Report includes a recommendation for the supreme court to consider the feasibility of a two-tier, or dual track, civil justice system for handling cases with an amount in controversy below a specific amount in a more expedited and cost-effective manner. The report also includes recommendations for streamlining discovery processes. To respond to these related recommendations, the supreme court establishes the Advisory Committee Concerning Certain Civil Justice Reform Task Force recommendations to propose potential amendments to the Iowa Rules of Civil Procedure to implement a two-tier, or dual-track, civil justice system and to streamline discovery processes. The committee should be guided by the work of the task force, but is not limited by its specific recommendations.

The court appoints the following persons to serve on this committee:

Honorable Edward Mansfield, Justice, Iowa Supreme Court, Des Moines, Chair

Professor Patrick Bauer, University of Iowa College of Law, Iowa City
